The track numbers place these bands in chronological order, according to their first release on the label. The prefix of each file name is the catalogue number of that first release. At the very beginning (not as far back as dinosaurs or anything), the label shared the ‘Magic Moments At Twilight Time’ name with the band. The first prefix we used was simply ‘C’ for cassette, before moving on to ‘MMATT’ (we worked for months on that one), in July 1988, when the label went all official like. In April 1992, the label embraced the global underground movement and became Music & Elsewhere. The rest as they say, is history...

Kevyn Dymond
Talented multi-instrumentalist included in this collection as a solo artist, as well as with The Folkoffs, Barking Dogma and Cynde Gehman.

Mike Pougounas
Vocalist with one of our most successful bands; noteworthy Greek gothic rockers, Flowers Of Romance.

Sabotage QCQC
The M&E band signed by EMI who very wisely returned to the independent underground.

The Disc;

LightScribe discs are a little prone to fading over time, so it's worth taking a few precautions with them. It's heat and light that do the most damage (lucky they're not read by lasers, eh?), so don't leave them in players for long periods, take it easy with use in cars and don't leave them on windowsills in glorious sunshine.

Apparently, even residual chemicals from your fingers can cause fading, common ones found in such everyday items as hand lotions and hair care products. So, if you avoid the sunlight, have dry skin and your hair looks like a haystack, at least your M&E CDR will look cool...

89. M&E 392 Blade (England) – “Twisted Religion (Harley James Remix)”

The Invisible Band

The most prolific band to appear on M&E, there's only one Rory Cargill!

David Bohatyretz

Aka Zalnikor Zundorum, main man with Canadian improvisational giants, Jaws Of The Flying Carpet.

Cristian Vogel

On M&E tapes back in '93, nowadays a top producer and remixer working with the likes of Radiohead. Where did it all go so wrong for him?

M&E SHOWCASE

Although we no longer release new material, we do more than just go on about the good old days, promise. Though we do a fair amount of that, I confess. The underground continues to live and breathe, so we do an online Showcase series to give you a sneaky peek at what's going down here and now in the present. You'll find all the details on our site, www.mickmagic.net, just click on the 'Showcase' link on the menu bar. Enjoy muchly!

Judge Trev

Sadly no longer with us, the man was a true legend and we were immensely proud to have him on the label.

Pornorphans

A bit of a personal favourite were these controversial Scandinavian rockers, fronted by the delightful Jytt.

Sirenée

One of a good many excellent Austrian artists we discovered via the Trost label, here with a gentleman friend on a visit to our old Frimley base in the mid 90's.

136. M&E 578 Garfield's Birthday (England) – "Peepshow"

M&E 601 - This mp3 collection © 2013 Music & Elsewhere, packaging © 2013 Magic Graphics

Copyright, in our opinion, should remain with the artists who created these fine works. We're still in touch with a lot of them and would be happy to provide contact details on request., see last page for ours...

Levente

This accomplished Transylvanian electronic musician became the very last artist to be released on M&E in May 2003.

15. M&E 296 Steve Andrews (Wales) – "Real Love & Communication"

Mick Magic & Lord Litter

The label may have grown out of my work with Magic Moments At Twilight Time, but it wouldn't have happened without the inspiration of Lord Litter. If there was ever a 'Mr. Underground' title, he'd win it by a significant distance.
